I Create Newsletter: (July 2013)

Welcome to the Monsoon issue of I Create! We begin with an appreciation poem from a participant- Murtaza who was part of the AEW held at Burhani College This has been further edited by Harsh & Aruna

Reaching the World, the endless sky

I Create here moves forward,

Guiding our life to the fruitful way.

Reaching the minds of you and I.

Rising the “I” and climbing the pile,

Lighting up hopes and lighting up smiles,

Building a ship and lending a grip

To make us win the wordly trip,

I Create here moves forward,

Guiding our life to the fruitful way.

Making our hopes, our wishes adorn,

Saving our life from a losing drown.

Fetching our goal & giving us the win.

Giving our life a shine to glint.

I Create here moves forward,

Guiding our life to the fruitful way.

Looking at the world, with a lively eye,

Making us strong and willing to try,

Washing away all fears & strains,

Boosting the veins of our lively train.

I Create here moves forward,

Guiding our life to thye fruitful way

Driving the wheels of our success cart

I Create Newsletter: (July 2013)

Making us win & capture the hearts

Teaching the right to make us fight

Taking all failures of life, making them bright.

I Create here moves forward,

Guiding our life to the fruitful way

All of Venkatesh's reports speak of the wet days at Maharashtra. Bangalore is awesome with good chilly air and the puddles, ponds, lakes, reservoirs, rivers are all overflowing!! Great indeed.

But this has not stopped I Create's activity. The EAPs, AEWs, the TOTs and the Refreshers go on & on.

Entrepreneurs Awareness programs were held at –

Participants presenting the business plan

I Create Classle/ CMS Online

CMS is underway in most of the centers. CMS online is expected to start shortly and we hope all of you bring in more people to participate in the I Create-Classle online portal. This will be a great opportunity for all the I Create family and extended family to be looped together. Details of the the whole exercise will be explained to you through a webinar at a suitable date.
