

Ms. Yeshasvini Ramaswamy

Ms. Yeshasvini Ramaswamy is the Managing Director of e2e People Practices Pvt. Ltd; a Leadership Audit firm that helps entrepreneur CEOs scale their businesses. She has been noted to bring in a fresh outlook to business aligned HR practices.

A former management consultant at Infosys BPO, she has built her expertise in creating people engagement models to help organizations track their ROI on HR related investments and business performance. With her career spanning close to one and half decades with rich experience in startup environments, she has facilitated learning through mentoring and group sessions to more than 3000 people in areas pertaining to leadership principles and self-management. She has managed international migrations "Build Operate Transfer" models from countries such as USA, Australia, England and Dubai in KPO, Training and BPO industry segments. At a national level her BOT model has been to successfully launch India's first MBA in entrepreneurship with committed funding with JGI where she also serves the Board at JGI Ventures. She has also been instrumental in building robust recruitment processes which hired over 3500 employees over the years.