

Ranju Mehta

Director

Director of I Create Rajasthan, Jaipur Ranju Mehta has been associated with it for last 11 years and has made persistent efforts to uplift destitute and rural women and school and college students through promoting entrepreneurship. Her work with the marginalised women was recognised by NFTE and in 2004 she was awarded the INDIA CERTIFIED ENTREPRENEURSHIP TEACHER OF THE YEAR. She is also the recipient of GLOBAL ENTERPRISING EDUCATOR 2012 award at New York.

She is teaching Philosophy for last twenty-eight years in Kanoria PG College, a leading women's college of Rajasthan. She opened an entrepreneurship club in her college to reach out to young girls who have tremendous creativity and talent to convert it into business .

She is associated as consultant and member of the management of some prestigious schools of the city. And is also an active member of NGOs like Women's Rehabilitation Group and Vividha and of a literary organisation, Prakrat Bharati . She has prepared the Teacher's manual of I Create in Hindi and has translated Aruna Bhargava's book into Hindi-Sakaar-Sapne . She also has translations of two books and several stories to her credit.

Her natural inclination is towards welfare activities for disadvantaged, career and personal counseling along with personality development of young students. Enjoys conversing with adolescents, reading, writing, cooking and organizing events.