

Annapurna helps family pull out of poverty through her small business!

Annapurna Sunagar is the youngest three siblings. Her mother is aged and suffers from paralysis and is unable to work. They all live in a rented house with hand to mouth existence. Annapurna's elder sister does tailoring and her elder brother works as a salesman for a textile shop.

Annapurna did not want to waste her time and decided to help her siblings to run the family. She went for tailoring classes and has started to do tailoring from home. She has many customers now and is earning Rs.3,000 a month. She attended I Create training in the month of March 2015 and requested for I Create MAGIC fund to buy a Pico Machine which will help her to diversify her business and earn more money.

I Create has helped her with Rs.8,000 to buy the Pico Machine.
